from Their Royal Majesties

Unto the great and noble populace of the Outlands Doth Bela and Elizabeth send heartfelt greetings.

As We travel the Knowne World We are reminded how truly blessed We are to be the Crown of such a astonishing Kingdom. The generosity of Our artisans and the mastery of their skills have truly amazed the populace of Our bordering Kingdoms. Over the course of Our progress We are well pleased to hear the stories and songs of the valor and chivalry of the mighty Outlands warriors and We have watched Our archer's arrows fly true to their targets to the greater glory of the Outlands. The Outlands is a Kingdom of such diversity and grace that there can be no other monarch in the Knowne World who is more honored and proud of Their populace than Ourselves.

We have listened to the Outlands drums rhythmic heartbeat and the song that We hear is one of battles to be fought and won. This month We will be attending Glory with Our noble cousins of Unser Hafen, where We are sure that the Outlands will once again show it's prowess on the field against all comers. We will then attend the Premier Service Event of the Outlands, Stags Con in the charming collage of Blaidwyn, within the borders of al-Barran. Our Royal Archer will have the opportunity to show his skill at Hawks Hollow's St. Sebastians within the gracious borders of the Queen's own Mountain Retreat. With Mother Nature's indulgence We shall be closing the month of July with a visit to Our fair shire of Drygestan for Lonely Mountain/Stags Blood Bath.

We wish to thank Our fair Baronies for all their gracious hospitality and generous support of Our progress and endeavors. Our Kingdom has done Us the great courtesy of caring for Ourselves and Our regalia with great passion, creativity and enthusiasm. The Outlands now has an additional set of thrones and a repaired Kingdom pavilion due to the time and effort of Our talented artisans. We give you all Our heartfelt thanks.

We remain your Outlandish Crown

Site opens at Noon on July 4. Closes at 4PM on July 7
Site Fee $12. Children 4-15, $5. Under 4, free. Family cap for site $35. Day fee $7. Children 4-15, $3. Under 4, free.

Event Autocrats: Mistress Rosalind of Wellmark (Rosalind Wells), 3601 El Caminito, Loveland, CO 80537, 970-667-1284, PLW1@verinet.com
Lady Mardanah al-Hindiyyah (Julia DiVerdi), 1104 Williams St., Ft. Collins, CO 80524, 970-221-3982, morgi@holly.colostate.edu.

Directions: Take your best route to I-80 in Wyoming 24 miles west of Cheyenne to exit 335 at Buford. Go north past the locked mailboxes and follow the road to the right 4.5 miles. (For those navigating via GPS, N 41degrees 08.863 min, W 105 degrees 14.484 min to the Glory V gate.)

In the good tradition of Glory's past, we shall fight till we drop and party where we fall. This year we fight, fence, arch, ride, drum and dance from Europe to the Middle East on a grand crusade for fun, and of course, more Glory. Our website is up so check for details as they develop www.unserhafen.org/glory

The site is discretely wet; Equestrians and merchants are welcome; pets must be leashed. Elevation is 7,500 feet, so nights may be cool and days desert warm. There is no potable water source on site. Open fires are restricted to permanent fire rings, or off the ground. Fire rules are subject to change as the season progresses. Both non-martial adult and children's activities are planned. Look forward to the Walk of Shrines, a hands-on herb class with Baroness Leonora, a Bardic fire with a Toast & Boast, an evening at Saladin's with drumming and dancing, and a stick horse joust.

Many martial challenges await those Crusaders who dare....heavy fighting tournaments and melees, a two day long fencing scenario, thrown weapons competition, and combat archery. Rumor has it that the Huns will be challenged for possession of the Pawnee Grasslands which they won last Glory. And, they are preparing.....

Everyone can participate in the Walk of Shrines. Plan a shrine – solemn or not – dedicated to whatever or whomever you choose and set it up in your camp. Register your shrine with the Troll to get on the map. Late Saturday afternoon following court, we will walk as pilgrims and enjoy the creativity and generosity of each shrine.

There will be a potluck feast for everyone in camp on Thursday evening, July 4, so bring something to share. Then The White Rose Inn will offer 3 meals on Friday and Saturday, plus breakfast on Sunday for the first 150 Crusaders to send a reservation and pre-payment. Cost for the Inn is $20 for adults, children 4-12, $15, and under 4 are free with an adult reservation. Send reservations and payments to Mistress Meriel of Tay (Susan Clotfelter), clotfelter@frii.com, 2889 SW 6th St., Loveland, CO 80537. Please write "SCA Reservation" on your envelope, and make checks payable to SCA-Unser Hafen. Send dietary restrictions by June 1.

From the Chancellery of the Exchequer

I am currently accepting applications for the position of Kingdom Exchequer. Please send a letter of introduction and experience that I could share with TRM's and the Society Exchequer. Currently, I keep files in Word, Excel and QuickBooks Pro 2001. The Kingdom owns the copy of QuickBooks Pro and I would pass that on to my successor. The chosen applicant would serve as my deputy until November when the office would change over. I would then remain on as deputy to the new Exchequer for as long as needed. Please send letters to my home address listed on the Officer's page of the OH.
Thanks,
MINA

Jom the Kingdom Archer General

Congratulations to the new Royal Archer of the Outlands, Ian Lindsey MacRae. Thanks to all the archers who participated in the tournaments. Good job to the archers who advanced to Yeoman in the Royal Archer Qualifications, Ceara McCain and Roma Veddig. At Outlandish during Saturday evening court, blue tassels were presented to the newest Yeoman. Their Royal Majesties took this opportunity to allow the archers to be a part of the ceremony admitting a new Sharparrow. Huzzah to the newest Companion of the Iron Rain, THL Damian d'Antioche.

I would like to thank William Hawke for his generosity and service in organizing a series of women's archery tournaments. William has used his skills as silversmith to craft the prizes inspired by museum pieces for the winners. The first tournament was held at Crossroads to high praise from the participants. The second will be held at St. Sebastians and the third will be held at Fields of Gold. I encourage all the ladies to participate.

Please try to attend Stag's Con, the premier service event of the Outlands. We will be discussing new safety rules, training for Captains of archery and Marshals of the field, ideas for Estrella archery, and how to utilize available resources to help your groups.

Duncan and Damian have decided to step down to allow more time for their other positions. Sir Rand the Tracker of Oak Hollow has volunteered to serve as Northern DAG. THL Steitan der Bogenshutz has volunteered to serve as Southern DAG. You will find their contact information at the back of the OH. Thanks to THL Damian d'Antioche and to THL Duncan MacAllister for their service as Deputy Archers General. Their assistance has been invaluable in keeping this office running smoothly.

In the 16th Century, the Spanish explorers named many sites in the Outlands. One of these is the Capitan Mountains. Come and help us celebrate the coming of these early caballeros (knights) with tourneys and fan for all. Heavy Weapons tourneys of both the squared circle and melee will get your blood running. Light weapons will have many acres to celebrate their duels. Archers will vie for the right to kiss their love under the mistletoe.

COMBAT ARCHERS will have their own tourney of Archer vs Archer in scouting and in Agincourt style combat. Combat Archers must meet minimum armor requirements for heavy combat and fencing rules will apply in judging hits. Also, Combat Archers may present experimental weapons and arrows which, if deemed safe and accepted by marshals, chiurgeons, and fellow archers, may be used on the field.

The only structures on site are the necessaries. No showers. During normal weather, a spring brings water to the site but this is dry during droughts. Bring water, fire extinguishers and shovels. Fire restrictions posted for the Lincoln National Forest will be strictly enforced. Roads to and from the site are all-weather surfaced. The site is shaded and has many acres of land for activities. A Saturday night bardic will entertain all.

Come one, come all, the day is fast approaching for our shire to find a new defender. We are the only shire to have a rapier fighter as defender and it is time to find our champion from within the Outlands. Currently our defender is from a kingdom to the north; rise up to the challenge and uphold the honor of the Stag. We also will find a new champion to be named Defender of the Silver Pass from among the heavy weapons fighters. In addition to the tournaments we will have and archery competition, thrown weapons, and melees for lights and heavies.

For the non-combatants, we have an A&S open competition, rolling pin toss, children's activities, and the ever popular tavern. If you haven't seen this tavern, you will be in for a treat. It holds a brewing competition, drumming competition, and dancing contest. All brewers/vintners are encouraged to enter and to share their talents. We always have a bardic contest and a desert competition for all to enjoy. This year should be even better, there is NO curfew at our new site, yes, that's right, NO curfew. We can drum and revel 'til we're ready to quit.

We have a new site and it boasts a huge open field for a town square, open field fighting with maybe a castle to defend, merchants row for your shopping pleasure, archery range, and room to relax and enjoy the last days of summer. There is also lots of camping in the open for those with large pavilions and room to set up in the trees for your privacy needs. We just ask you to bring all the water you need and some to share as no well has been found. Due to drought, no open fires will be permitted. Merchants please pre-register.

From the Ministry of the Lists

Greetings Fighters and Fencers of the Outlands!

It is tourney season, and fighting abounds! Please remember that you are required to show BOTH a current blue card (a waiver is not acceptable) AND a current green card. It is a sad day when a fighter is turned away from a tourament because they don't have the proper paperwork..

On a sunnier note if you are an authorizing marshall or a MoL; you can use the Minister of the Lists web pages to report authorizations, turn in tourney reporting, print a list of current authorizations. You can find them by entering the officers home page: http://www.outlands.org/officers.html

I hope to see all local MoL officers attend Stags Con, the premier service event of the Outlands, we will be covering alot of important information. If you have comments or suggestions that you feel would benefit this office, please feel free to email me.

From the Kingdom Scribe

Warm Greetings to Outlanders near and far,

Another Reign has drawn to a close. We laughed and cheered, but now the lights have dimmed, the curtains closed and the stagehands have quietly reset the stage. It is now time to roll the credits to name the artisans who created scrolls for those whose contributions were recognized during the reign of Maelgwn and Cainnleach.

But wait. There's more. Not only were these scribes hard at work on current reign scrolls, but these and others attacked the backlog of scrolls from Their Predecessors Kynan and Eleanor. Keep in mind as you scroll through the names that these credits are for kingdom-level awards only. They do not include older backscrolls, commissions, baronial scrolls or specialty scrolls (Archery, Toys for Tots, A&S, etc) some of which these scribes have worked on as well. I beg you, please, stand, clap your hands and join me in a resounding Thank You and Huzzah for these hardworking

From the Kingdom Rapier Marshal

Unto all rapier fighters of the Kingdom of the Outlands does Don Carrick send greetings! As camping season is upon us, there should be many tournaments and melees for everyone to have fun with. While you're out there fencing your hearts out, take a moment to thank the people on the sides making the fun possible for you: the List Ministers, the Waterbearers, the Heralds, and the Marshals. Without them, you wouldn't be having as much fun.

Good news! As of 1 June 2002, Hanwei blades, produced by CAS/Iberia, and Alchem 'Safeflex' rapier blades are approved for Society use as heavy rapiers by the Society Rapier Marshal. Having seen some of these blades myself, I hereby approve them for use within the Kingdom as well. The Hanwei blades in particular handle very well, and are much cheaper than many of the other heavy rapiers out there.

Also, I would like to announce the topics I will be addressing at Stag's Con, the premiere service event of the Outlands; I plan to hold separate sessions on: Schlager as a first authorization; The inter-Kingdom Sidesword experiment, The recent rules revisions and other marshalling issues, and An open forum for the Kingdom's fencers to talk about whatever issues they wish. If you can't make it to Stag's Con (remembering that travel expenses will be reimbursed), please feel free to e-mail me your thoughts on any of these topics.

The Man & the Satyr

Long ago people told stories like this one about creatures called satyrs, who were part human and part goat, and lived in the forest. A man and a satyr became friends and were going to have a meal together. It was a cold winter day, and the man blew on his hands. "Why do you do that, my friend?" asked the satyr. "To warm them," answered the man. Then the food was ready. It was piping hot, and the man blew on it. "Why do you do that, friend?" the satyr asked. "To cool it," the man answered. When the satyr heard that, he said, "I'm sorry, but I don't want to be friends with you any more. With only one mouth, you blow both hot and cold."

From the Outlands War Council

Greetings Outlanders,

Know all that the categories for the Arts & Sciences Competition for Estrella War XIX (February 2003) have been chosen one year ahead of time to allow the competitors ample time to prepare entries. They include:

- Heraldic Display
- Functional Period Accessories (non-jewelry), i.e., hats, belts, pouches, shoes, etc.
- Period Clothing Construction

Rules for these categories shall be determined at the Treaty Negotiations in October with all of the Principal Kingdoms involved.

The War Council is working on many projects regarding the Outlands efforts for War. One key component to the success of our efforts is your input. Please talk to the person on the council relevant to your specific area of interest or anyone of us you can find and let us know about your ideas. Here are the current members on the council:

Duke Irel, Duke Hrothgar, Sir Asad, and Baron Hogaarden (Chivalry representatives), Mistress Brianna (Laurel representative), Mistress Madigan (Pelican representative), Duke Kynan (Royal Peer), Countess Kathryn (Archery representative), Don Carrick (Rapier representative), and Lady Alia (Water Bearer).

We will need volunteers in many areas in the coming year, so please contact me and I will point you in the right direction to put your enthusiasm to work. We are currently creating a web page that you will be able to access for contact information and updates on war related projects. Please call or e-mail me for general information or for contact information for the members listed above, as there is not room here to list everyone's information.

Thank you for your support!

From the Seneschal

Unto the Populace of the Outlands does Master Adam Stedefast send warm greetings.

In a suprise move, I would like to address, one last time, StagsCon, which I am given to understand, is the premier service event of the Outlands. All are invited to come and experience for themselves that service comes in many forms and StagsCon, the premier service event of the Outlands, highlights several of these. In addition to the kingdom officers meeting with their local counterparts, there will also be classes on autocratting, feast coordinating as well as meetings about fundraising and strategy making for the Outlands's Toys for Tots campaign (Did you know that other kingdoms are already collecting toys for the Known World Toys for Tots Challenge?).

Service is often its own reward, but free site fee and free breakfast, lunch and barbecue dinner don't hurt either. StagsCon, the premier service event of the Outlands, is not only a reward for those who love service, but it also provides the tools for forging the future of our mighty kingdom by fostering communication, cooperation and leadership. Come learn, grow, and make the Outlands strong.

"First say to yourself what you would be; and then do what you have to do" - Epictetus

From the White Stag Principal Herald

Greetings from Balthazar, White Stag Principal Herald.

Heraldic activity throughout the kingdom is high, our submissions to Laurel have been doing very well, and our scribes are doing an amazing job at not only keeping up with the new awards, but have also been hard at work on back scrolls as well.

I am very proud of all of the people who have done so much work over this last year that I have been White Stag.. Unfortunately, due to mundane concerns, I feel that it is in the best interests of the kingdom that I find a replacement as White Stag.

I hope to step down reasonably soon - almost certainly by the end of the reign, possibly as soon as Lonely Mountain. Thus, I am seeking letters of interest in the position.

Please send a letter to myself and to Their Majesties if you are interested in the position.

I love this job, and don't really want to give it up, but the needs of the kingdom are more than I can provide right now. If you have any questions about what the job entails, please feel free to contact myself, or any of my immediate predecessors - His Excellency Timothy O'Brien, THL Pendar the Bard, and Duke Artan McAilin.

Thank you for your kind attentions.
In service, Balthazar

From the Ministry of A&S

Greetings and I hope this missive finds you fully hydrated and fully in the swing of summer tourneying!

As of this writing, I will not yet have been to Citadel's A&S, but I am sure it was a great success and I will report all results here next month so that their artisans may receive much Wordfame.

STAGSCON, the premier service event of the Outlands As of this writing (first of June) I have heard from TWO of our officers on whether they are going. I am sure that by the time this newsletter is in Outlandish hands, ALL of my officers will have let me know whether or not they will be attending, right? (and I'm sure by then all of our local officers will be sending me reports, hmmm?) Once again, before this deceased horse is pounded to powder, StagsCon, the premier service event of the Outlands, is an excellent opportunity to meet and share ideas. YOU SHOULD COME!

Just a reminder to all local officers - *reports are required monthly (quarterly by arrangement only), after three consecutive reports are missed, you may be removed from office *you must have a current SCA membership *you need to have the most current copy of the Kingdom A&S Handbook (Sept.2000) in your files Please keep up to date! If anyone has any questions about keeping and/or maintaing A&S officer status, please don't hesitate to call, write, e-mail, yell really loudly, whatever! Last but not least, if you are an artisan and are willing to execute heraldic art in its many forms for the Populace, please contact me with your pertinent information, I am still putting together a list of Heraldic Artisans for the Outlands.

If anyone needs to speak to me in person, currently I am planning to attend StagsCon (July 13)and Clann Wars (July 19). I am planning on attending a Northern Event in Aug/Sept but am still hammering out my schedule, so please contact me if you need me.

Until then, I remain, Toujours a vos ordres,
Margaret

'Contact Information' for autocrats as mentioned above is defined as: SCA Name, Mundane Name, address, phone number with area code, and an E-mail address if one is available. Contact Information' for other coordinators as mentioned above is defined as: SCA Name, Mundane Name, phone number with area code, and an E-mail address if one is available.

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (½) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. Autocrats, please take notice of the article size constraints, and try to stay within them. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A March event MUST run in the March OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the two (2) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Kingdom Events (Crown, Coronation, A&S Competition/Collegium, and others as designated by the Crown) receive one (1) page in the publications prior to the event, and two (2) pages the month of the event. Non-Kingdom Events receive one-half (½) page in the publications prior to the event, and one (1) page the month of the event. Additional space may be purchased for any publication month at the current advertising rates. Current advertising rates are listed in the front of the Outlandish Herald. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.
